

The GOP's House of Cards

© 2024 Jeff Gates, chamomileteaparty.com

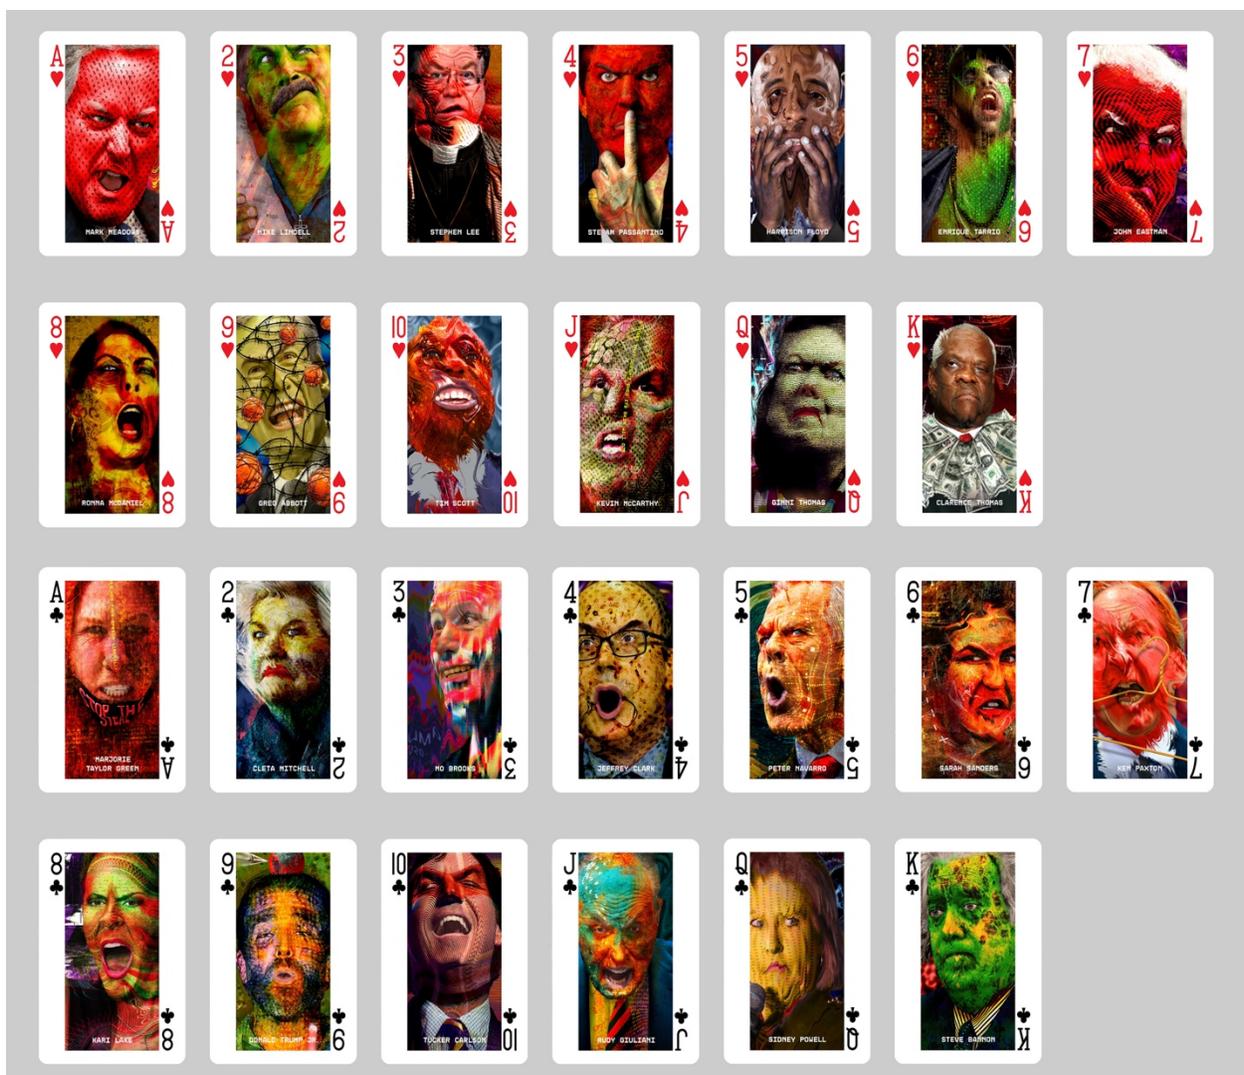

Donald Trump and his cronies have been gambling with our democracy for the last nine years. "Alternative facts," lies, and an insurrection to upend the 2020 presidential election threaten the very foundation of our country.

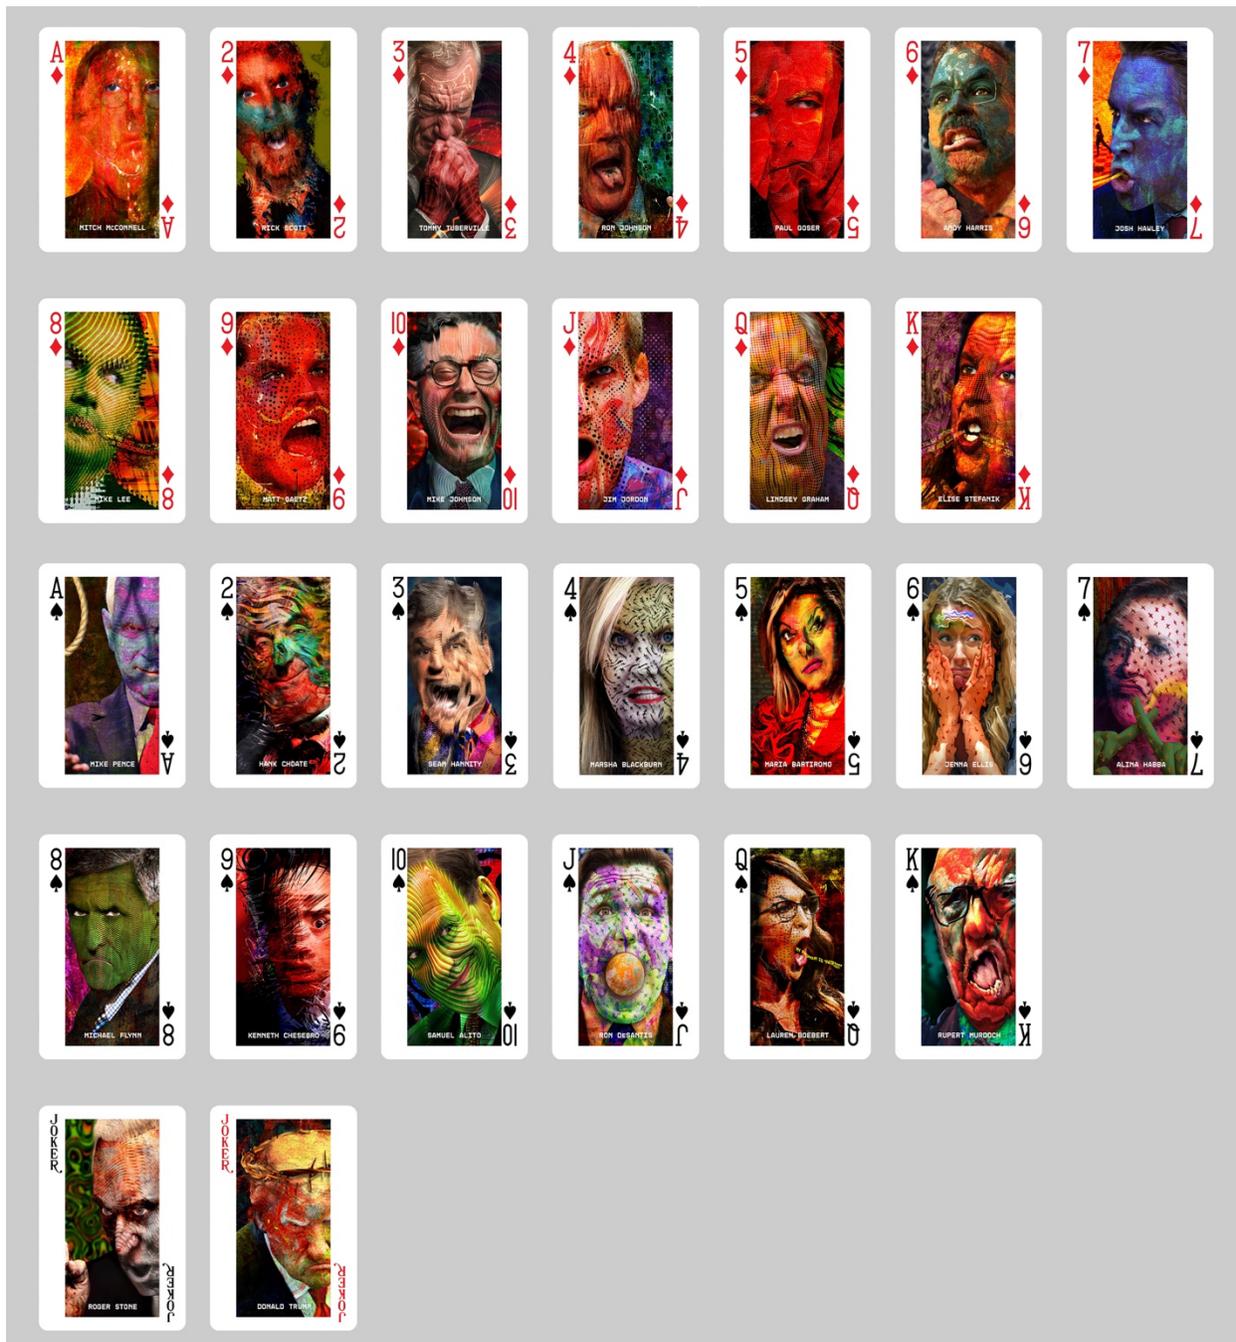

Artist Jeff Gates has created a fitting symbol of these times with a poker deck of cards, each featuring one participant in Trump's attempt to turn America into an authoritarian state. The portraits on the face cards come from Gates' series, "Faces of the Republican Party." The entire group of images will be on exhibition at the American University Museum in Washington, DC during the election season from September through December 2024.

Gates has been creating posters about the sorry state of American political discourse since 2010. And his over 300 images have become a visual history spanning the rise of The Tea Party to the present. His work has appeared in several international exhibitions and in publications, including Graphis' latest book of political posters, The Nation, and PRINT.

Place your bets and play your hand. Strategy with a bit of luck will determine the outcome of this game. The GOP's House of Cards will be available for purchase later this spring.
